Theoretical Orientation Paper (centered, bold)

Begin writing your paper here. Do not use the word Introduction as a heading, since it is not considered a heading and is assumed. Your first level of heading appears as:

Name of the Theory

Your second level of heading appears flush left, bold, title case heading (see p. 48 of Manual).

Major Theorist(s)

If the next sections of your paper represent similar sections level, continue to use level 2:

Key Concepts

Specific Techniques and Interventions

Critique of Existing Research

Multicultural Considerations

Use in Practice

Limitations

If there are subsections within any of the level 2 headings, you would use level 3, which would be placed flush left, bold italic, title case heading.
